

ASX RELEASE

10 November 2005

New Contract, New Work, New Website

New Contract – Harris Scarfe

Wellcom Group Limited (ASX Code: WLL) has signed a 3 year contract with Harris Scarfe. Wellcom will provide Harris Scarfe with a complete catalogue production solution; from talent coordination, to digital photography, to the page build for final catalogues.

New Work – Federal Government Industrial Relations Campaign

Wellcom's capabilities and efficiencies are being demonstrated in its new work with Dewey Horton on the Federal Government Industrial Relations Campaign. Using its own facilities management team embedded at Dewey Horton, Wellcom are responsible for producing all the newspaper, brochures and collateral material associated with the campaign.

The signing of the Harris Scarfe contract and the significant new work supporting the Federal Government Industrial Relations campaign comes hard on the heels of securing the API and Dick Smith contracts in September.

Chairman Wayne Sidwell said that "Wellcom is now delivering on prior announcements to the market that the Company expected to win significant new work in the near future."

New Website

Wellcom has launched a new Investor Relations section on its website at www.wellcom.com.au where investors can view significant operational developments and public announcements.

For further information, contact:

Wayne Sidwell
Executive Chairman and CEO
Wellcom Group Limited
(03) 9684 2500